

Ivy Ireland is a Ph.D student at the University of Newcastle and was one of the Poets Union Australian Young Poets Fellows in 2007, which culminated in the launch of her first book incidental complications. Ivy has a penchant for mysticism, cosmology and cabaret performance and has performed her poetry at various events including "This Is Not Art" and "The Peats Ridge Festival". Currently, Ivy is a co-director of the performance troupe, "The Lovelorn Living Party".