

Kate Fagan

Kate Fagan is a poet, songwriter and editor whose books include The Long Moment (Salt) and the chapbooks Thought's Kilometre (Tolling Elves) and return to a new physics (Vagabond). She is a former editor of the US-based journal of innovative poetry How2, and her creative and critical work appears in numerous Australian and international journals and anthologies including Calyx: 30 Contemporary Australian Poets (Paper Bark). She completed a PhD thesis on the American poet Lyn Hejinian and is currently writing a book entitled Observations on Time, Cargo. Kate is from one of Australia's most celebrated folk music families, The Fagans, and her album Diamond Wheel (MGM) won the National Film & Sound Archive Award for Best Folk Album. <http://www.katefagan.com>