

Melissa Boyde

Dr Melissa Boyde is a Research Fellow in the School of English Literatures, Philosophy and Languages at the University of Wollongong with a background in literary modernism. She is currently working on several projects including an Australian Research Council Linkage grant on audiences and contemporary art and craft; a biography of Australian modernist artist Mary Alice Evatt; and is developing a research focus on animals, ethics and representation.