Women in Research - Achieving it all

Thursday 4 March. 9.30 am – 12.30 pm

Robert Blackwood Hall, Monash University, Clayton Campus

A career in research can be challenging for women. Establishing their research career often coincides with starting a family. Join Nobel Laureate, Professor Elizabeth Blackburn AC and an expert panel facilitated by Anna Burke MP as they discuss how they achieve it all by balancing a career and personal life.

Keynote speaker

Professor Elizabeth Blackburn AC - joint recipient of the 2009 Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine and the first female Australian Nobel Laureate. Elizabeth is an inspiration to all including secondary and tertiary students, early career researchers and female scientists in Australia and across the globe.

Expert panel includes:

- Professor Penny Sackett, Chief Scientist for Australia
- Professor Margaret Sheil, CEO, Australian Research Council
- Dr Megan Clark, CEO, CSIRO
- Professor Sharon Bell, University of Melbourne
- Professor Kim Cornish, Monash University
- Associate Professor Rebekah Brown, Monash University
