

FACULTY OF PHARMACY AND PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES

Postgraduate studies in 2009

Why undertake postgraduate study?

Postgraduate study will give you new skills and knowledge, provide you with fresh challenges and opportunities and may lead to a new or enhanced career.

What are the postgraduate programs at the Faculty of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences

(A) Research

- 1) The Honours degree of Bachelor of Pharmaceutical Science (Honours) – 1 year full-time study/ 2 years part-time, CSP based;
- 2) The Honours degree of Bachelor of Formulation Science– 1 year full-time study/ 2 years part-time, CSP based;
- 3) The Hons degree of Bachelor of Medicinal Chemistry 1 year full-time study/ 2 years part-time, CSP based;
- 4) Master of Pharmaceutical Science – 1-2 years full-time study (or the part-time equivalent), RTS funded
- 5) Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) – 3-4 years full-time study (or the full-time equivalent), RTS funded

See the faculty's research homepage at: <http://www.pharm.monash.edu.au/research/>

(B) Coursework

- 1) Master of Clinical Pharmacy – available part-time over 2 years.
- 2) Graduate Certificate/Grad Dip/Masters in Wound Care.
- 3) Graduate Certificate of Pharmacy Practice

What qualifications do you need to enter postgraduate research programs?

- 1) The Honours degrees of Bachelor of Pharmaceutical Science, Formulation Science and Medicinal Chemistry: an appropriate undergraduate degree with a minimum credit average
- 2) Master of Pharmaceutical Science Honours degree at H1 or H2A

- 3) Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) -
Honours degree at H1 or H2A

What financial support is available for postgraduate research?

Scholarships are available for research higher degrees (Masters and PhD).

Scholarships include the Australian Postgraduate Awards (Commonwealth), Monash Graduate Scholarships and Faculty Scholarships.

Applicants require an Honours degree (H1) and the process is competitive. Stipend support in 2008 is $20,007 paid as a fortnightly stipend for 3 years (with the possibility of applying for up to 6 months extension).

More information is available at:

<http://www.pharm.monash.edu.au/postgrad/scholarships.html>

What opportunities exist for graduates?

Graduates with higher degrees are employed in academia, and a combination of industries including pharmaceutical, cosmetics, manufacturing, agricultural, paint, medical, medicinal, chemical industry, government, military and research institutes.

For further information about postgraduate research opportunities, please contact:

General postgraduate research enquiries

Postgraduate Research Programs Coordinator
Tel: 9903 9593
Email: info@vcp.monash.edu.au

For all Postgraduate Coursework enquiries, contact:

Postgraduate Coursework Coordinator
Tel: 9903 9509
Email: info@vcp.monash.edu.au

