

Internal Course Transfer Application Form (coursework only)

ADM04-V03/12

This form is to be used for students who are currently enrolled in a coursework degree at Monash who wish to transfer to another coursework degree at Monash. Transfers are only available between like courses, for example, from bachelor degree to bachelor degree.

Students enrolled in a masters by research or doctoral degree should seek advice from their faculty or the Monash Research Graduate School regarding degree transfer.

This form is not to be used by Monash College students.

Internal course transfer policy

This University policy can be viewed at: <http://www.policy.monash.edu/policy-bank/academic/education/admissions/admission-coursework-courses-units-of-study-policy.html>

Internal course transfer is subject to a competitive selection process. The level of performance required for a successful application is set by the faculty managing the course. It may vary from year to year. Check the faculty website for the minimum level of performance required to apply.

Credit transfer

If your application is successful, you may be eligible for credit toward your new course. Complete the section on credit transfer if you wish to apply for credit.

Notification of transfer

The faculty will notify you of the outcome of your application including (if applicable), credit transfer, how to accept your offer and how to enrol.

You must be enrolled in your current course while waiting for notification on the outcome of your application. For details on re-enrolment, please contact your current faculty.

Fees

If you are transferring from one campus to another but remain in the same course (no change of course code), your fees will be charged in Australian Dollars (AUD) at the continuing rate relevant to the year of your commencement inclusive of the yearly variable fee adjustments.

If you are transferring between courses (change of course code) with or without transferring campuses, you are considered a new commencing student in the new course. Your fees will be charged in Australian Dollars (AUD) at the commencing rate set by the managing faculty relevant to the time you commence the new course.

If you are transferring from a Monash offshore campus to an Australian campus but are remaining in the same course (no change of course code), your fees will be charged in Australian Dollars (AUD) at the continuing rate (of the Australian based course) relevant to the year of your commencement in that course (at the offshore location) inclusive of the yearly variable fee adjustments (relevant to the Australian based course).

HECS-HELP forms

Eligible Commonwealth Supported (CSP) students must complete a new HECS-HELP form if they wish to access HECS-HELP.

FEE-HELP forms

Eligible full-fee students must complete a new FEE-HELP form if they wish to access FEE-HELP.

International students (on campus)

International students should note that where an internal course transfer is approved, a new Confirmation of Enrolment (COE) and addendum to written agreement with Monash will be emailed to you. The Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (DEEWR) will be advised of any change to your course.
